INTRODUCTION

Thank you for purchasing one of our Live Gamer capture cards. We strongly recommend using it with RECentral to unleash its full potential.

This manual will go over the interface and the main functions of RECentral.

Download & Install

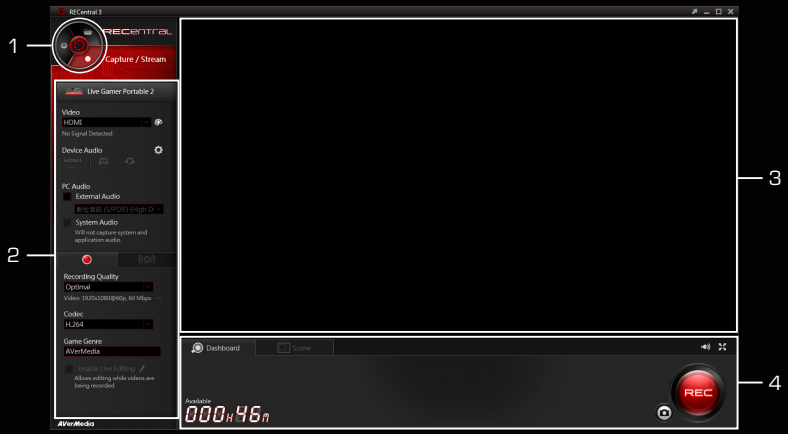
Download the installation file from q.avermedia.com/RECentral and install RECentral 3 to your computer.

For instructions on hardware connections, please refer to the quick guide inside the box of your Live Gamer capture card.

RECentral 3

INTERFACE

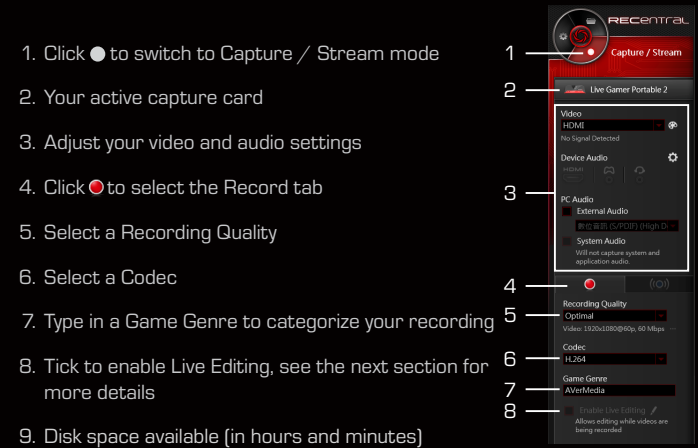
This is RECentral 3's interface:

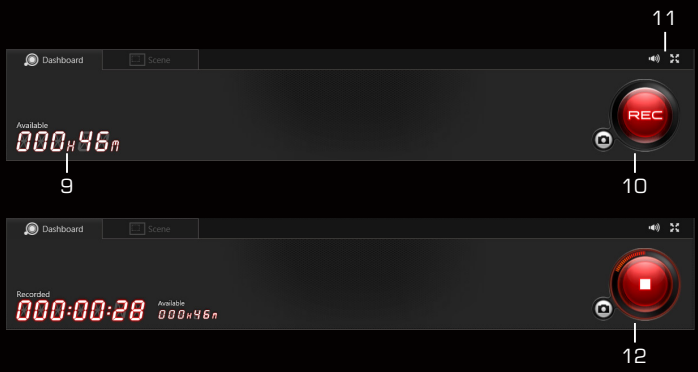


1	Mode Dial	Switches between modes
2	Option Panel	Audio and video options
3	Preview Panel	Main viewing area
4	Info Panel	Information and action buttons

RECORD

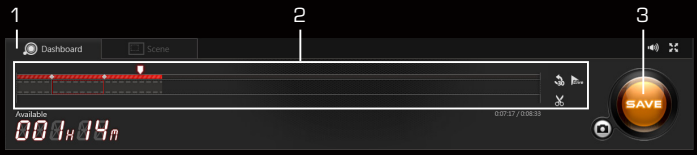
1. Click ● to switch to Capture / Stream mode
2. Your active capture card
3. Adjust your video and audio settings
4. Click ● to select the Record tab
5. Select a Recording Quality
6. Select a Codec
7. Type in a Game Genre to categorize your recording
8. Tick to enable Live Editing, see the next section for more details
9. Disk space available (in hours and minutes)
10. Click REC to start recording, click ● to capture images
11. Click ⛶ to go fullscreen, and 🔊 to mute audio
12. Click ■ to stop recording





Live Editing

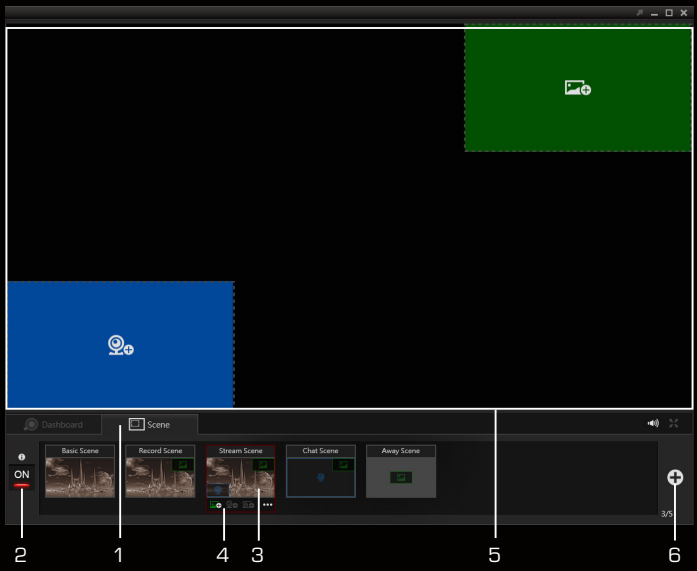
When enabled, your source feed will be cached to your storage. When storage is full, older footages will be overwritten.



1. Click to select the Dashboard tab
2. Edit cached footage
   - Drag or click on the timeline to shift forward/backward
   - Click 30 to go back 30 seconds, or Live to return to the live feed
   - Click to add/remove time marks at your current position in time, or right-click on the timeline to add/remove time marks anywhere on the timeline. Add multiple marks to create clips of footages in-between
   - Click on a clip to remove it, to add it back, or drag-and-drop the filmstrips to reorder the clips
3. When done, click SAVE to export your edited video

Scenes

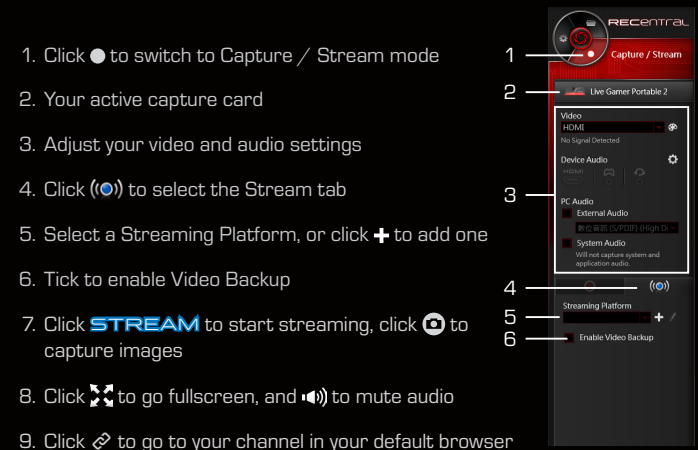
Scenes are different arrangements of on-screen elements (including the source video, your webcam's view, and images). When enabled, you may select from a number of pre-arranged scenes, or create ones that match your occasions.



1. Click ⬚ to select the Scene tab
2. Click the button to enable/disable Scenes
3. Select a scene to apply to your video
4. Click to add elements (picture, webcam, video, webpage, or text)
5. Edit the position, size, transformation, and layer properly of each individual element in the Preview Panel
6. Click ⊕ to create new scenes

STREAM

1. Click ● to switch to Capture / Stream mode
2. Your active capture card
3. Adjust your video and audio settings
4. Click ((●)) to select the Stream tab
5. Select a Streaming Platform, or click ✚ to add one
6. Tick to enable Video Backup
7. Click STREAM to start streaming, click 📷 to capture images
8. Click ⛶ to go fullscreen, and 🔊 to mute audio
9. Click 🔗 to go to your channel in your default browser
10. Click ■ to stop streaming



BROWSE & SHARE
